

Music Is One of the Vitalizing Forces and THE ANGELUS Is Its Greatest Medium.

Take Two Homecomings:

This man gets home in the evening mentally tired. House quiet. Nothing to disturb the continuity of his business thoughts. Keeps on thinking—in a rut.

How can a man sleep well and rise refreshed in the morning in such environments?

On the Other Hand

He reaches home as usual. As he fits the key in the lock of the door he hears the rollicking strains of "Steamboat Bill." Children singing. Harmony and happiness magnetize his mind. The business clutch is thrown off. More music. Dinner. Good appetite. Nerves relaxed. Coffee while listening to Artistic roll 90337—a bit from real life—

Seeling's "Bonnie, Sweet Bessie."

Liszt's "Liebestraum."

Gottschalk's "March of the Night."

Lehar's "My Hero."

"America"—"Chimes."

Who plays it?

One of the children on the ANGELUS in the living room. And it sounds like the work of a great pianist.

Follows his favorite selection, Bach's "Mosaic," roll 817—a group of the most melodious parts of Bach's choicest numbers.

The keynote of the evening has been struck—home, harmony, happiness.

Next morning his mind leaps to business details refreshed, vigorous, unfettered.

It Isn't "the Pace That Kills"—It's the Lack of Condition.

Again: Music Is One of the Vitalizing Forces and The Angelus Is Its Greatest Medium.

If you have a "Silent piano" we will take it in part payment for an ANGELUS. And terms of payment will be tempered to individual convenience, so that possession and enjoyment may go hand in hand with payment.

The Angelus, $675—Emerson-Angelus, $800—Knabe-Angelus, $1,000.

JUST PUBLISHED DESERT GOLD

By Zane Grey.

"But it is melodrama pure and undefiled," said one reader of "Desert Gold."

"What's melodrama?" he was asked.

"I mean it is a glorified dime novel written with splendid distinction, with charming grace, with red vigor, but still it is a sort of dime novel. There's the same galloping succession of events, the same tense situations—only it is all presented with such delicacy, such literary charm, one almost forgets the plot."

That's the story after all.

FACE COVERED WITH PIMPLES

Suffered Three Years. Used Resinol. Now Not a Pimple to Be Seen.
Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 27, 1912—"I had been troubled for the past three years with pimples which completely covered my face and neck. The pimples would come out, fester up and cause me to pick at them, feeling very uncomfortable. I tried most all kinds of facial creams, but with no effect. I tried a sample of Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment, and began to feel better. After using two jars of Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap, there was not a pimple to be seen, and now my face is as smooth as if there was never a pimple on it." (Signed) Albert Greenburg, 4107 Frankford Ave.

For eighteen years Resinol has been a favorite doctor's prescription and household remedy for itching troubles, skin eruptions, dandruff, chapped faces and hands, sores, piles, etc. Stops itching instantly. Sold by all druggists. Resinol Soap, 25c. Ointment, 50c, and $1.00, but you can try them without cost—just write for samples. Resinol Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md.
